

Pitching Session

Anne Sormunen

Cluster Manager, Executive Director

Biocluster.fi

The biocluster is a consortium that promotes green growth, business and innovation development.

Green growth and entrepreneurship
Research, innovations, and development
Internationalisation, growth funding and resources
Communication and expertise
International cooperation of clusters

-  Renewable energy
-  Natural resources
-  Circular economy
-  Environmentally friendly transport
-  New technologies and low emissions in construction

Telling the success story of the Green Transition – Business Competition – Joint Gala final?

A green transition competition for young growth-oriented companies and a yearly gala

Building recognition as EU's northern cooperation cluster

Creating an international brand, a unified visual look

Values: sustainable development, green growth, equality, self-sufficiency, resource wisdom

European collaborative networks

Marketing of the cluster area

Regional development and national interests

Internationalization, financing and resourcing, RDI

The Green Transition Gala highlights young sustainable development companies

<https://biocluster.fi/en/gala/>

Business competition

Mukavaa päivänjatkoa!