

Manufacturing Indaba 2023

Liz Hart

Managing Director

Manufacturing Indaba Introduction

Liz Hart

- 10th annual edition
- 2023 Theme: Capitalising on manufacturing growth in Africa
- Comprises a conference and exhibition
- Hosted at the renowned Sandton Convention Centre
- Supported by the South African Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (the dtic)
- Supported by the South African Department: Science and Innovation (DSI)
- Supported by the African Union Development Agency

Offering to EU Delegation

- The opportunity visit the exhibition and meet the exhibitors – a full directory will be provided with exhibitor profiles to the delegation prior to the event.
- The opportunity to attend the free exhibition workshops in the Trade & Investment Hub and Knowledge Hub (programmes here: <https://manufacturingindaba.co.za/free-exhibition-seminars/>)
- To join the B2B Connect Programme to arrange business meetings 5 free meetings per participating company and additional meetings at a fee per meeting of EURO 18.00
- Register to attend the conference (at a fee of EURO 350.00 per delegate)

Key event information

- Global event venue with super security (recently hosted the BRICS Summit with global Heads of State)
- Over 100 exhibitors exhibiting and no cost to meet the exhibitors
- Various financiers and government stakeholders exhibiting that can be engaged to explore trade opportunities
- Various African countries exhibiting and participating, South Africa Botswana, Senegal, Lesotho, Namibia, etc.

How to get involved:

1) Register to visit the exhibition at no cost:

<https://manufacturingindaba.co.za/visit-exhibition/>

2) Register for the conference and B2B

Connect: Enquire by emailing

liz@manufacturingindaba.co.za

Thank you